Editor Reviews

3 out of 3 people found the review helpful:

"The Blanco Bowling Club Café is a real bowling alley, just off the town square, where the nine-pin league rolls at night. The rest of the day the alleys are curtained off, although customers in the back dining room do enjoy such décor as bowling trophies, racks of balls, and ball bags piled atop league members' lockers. Accommodations are basic: wood-grain Formica tables set with silver wrapped in paper napkins. There is a short counter ..." [\[Read More\]](#)
